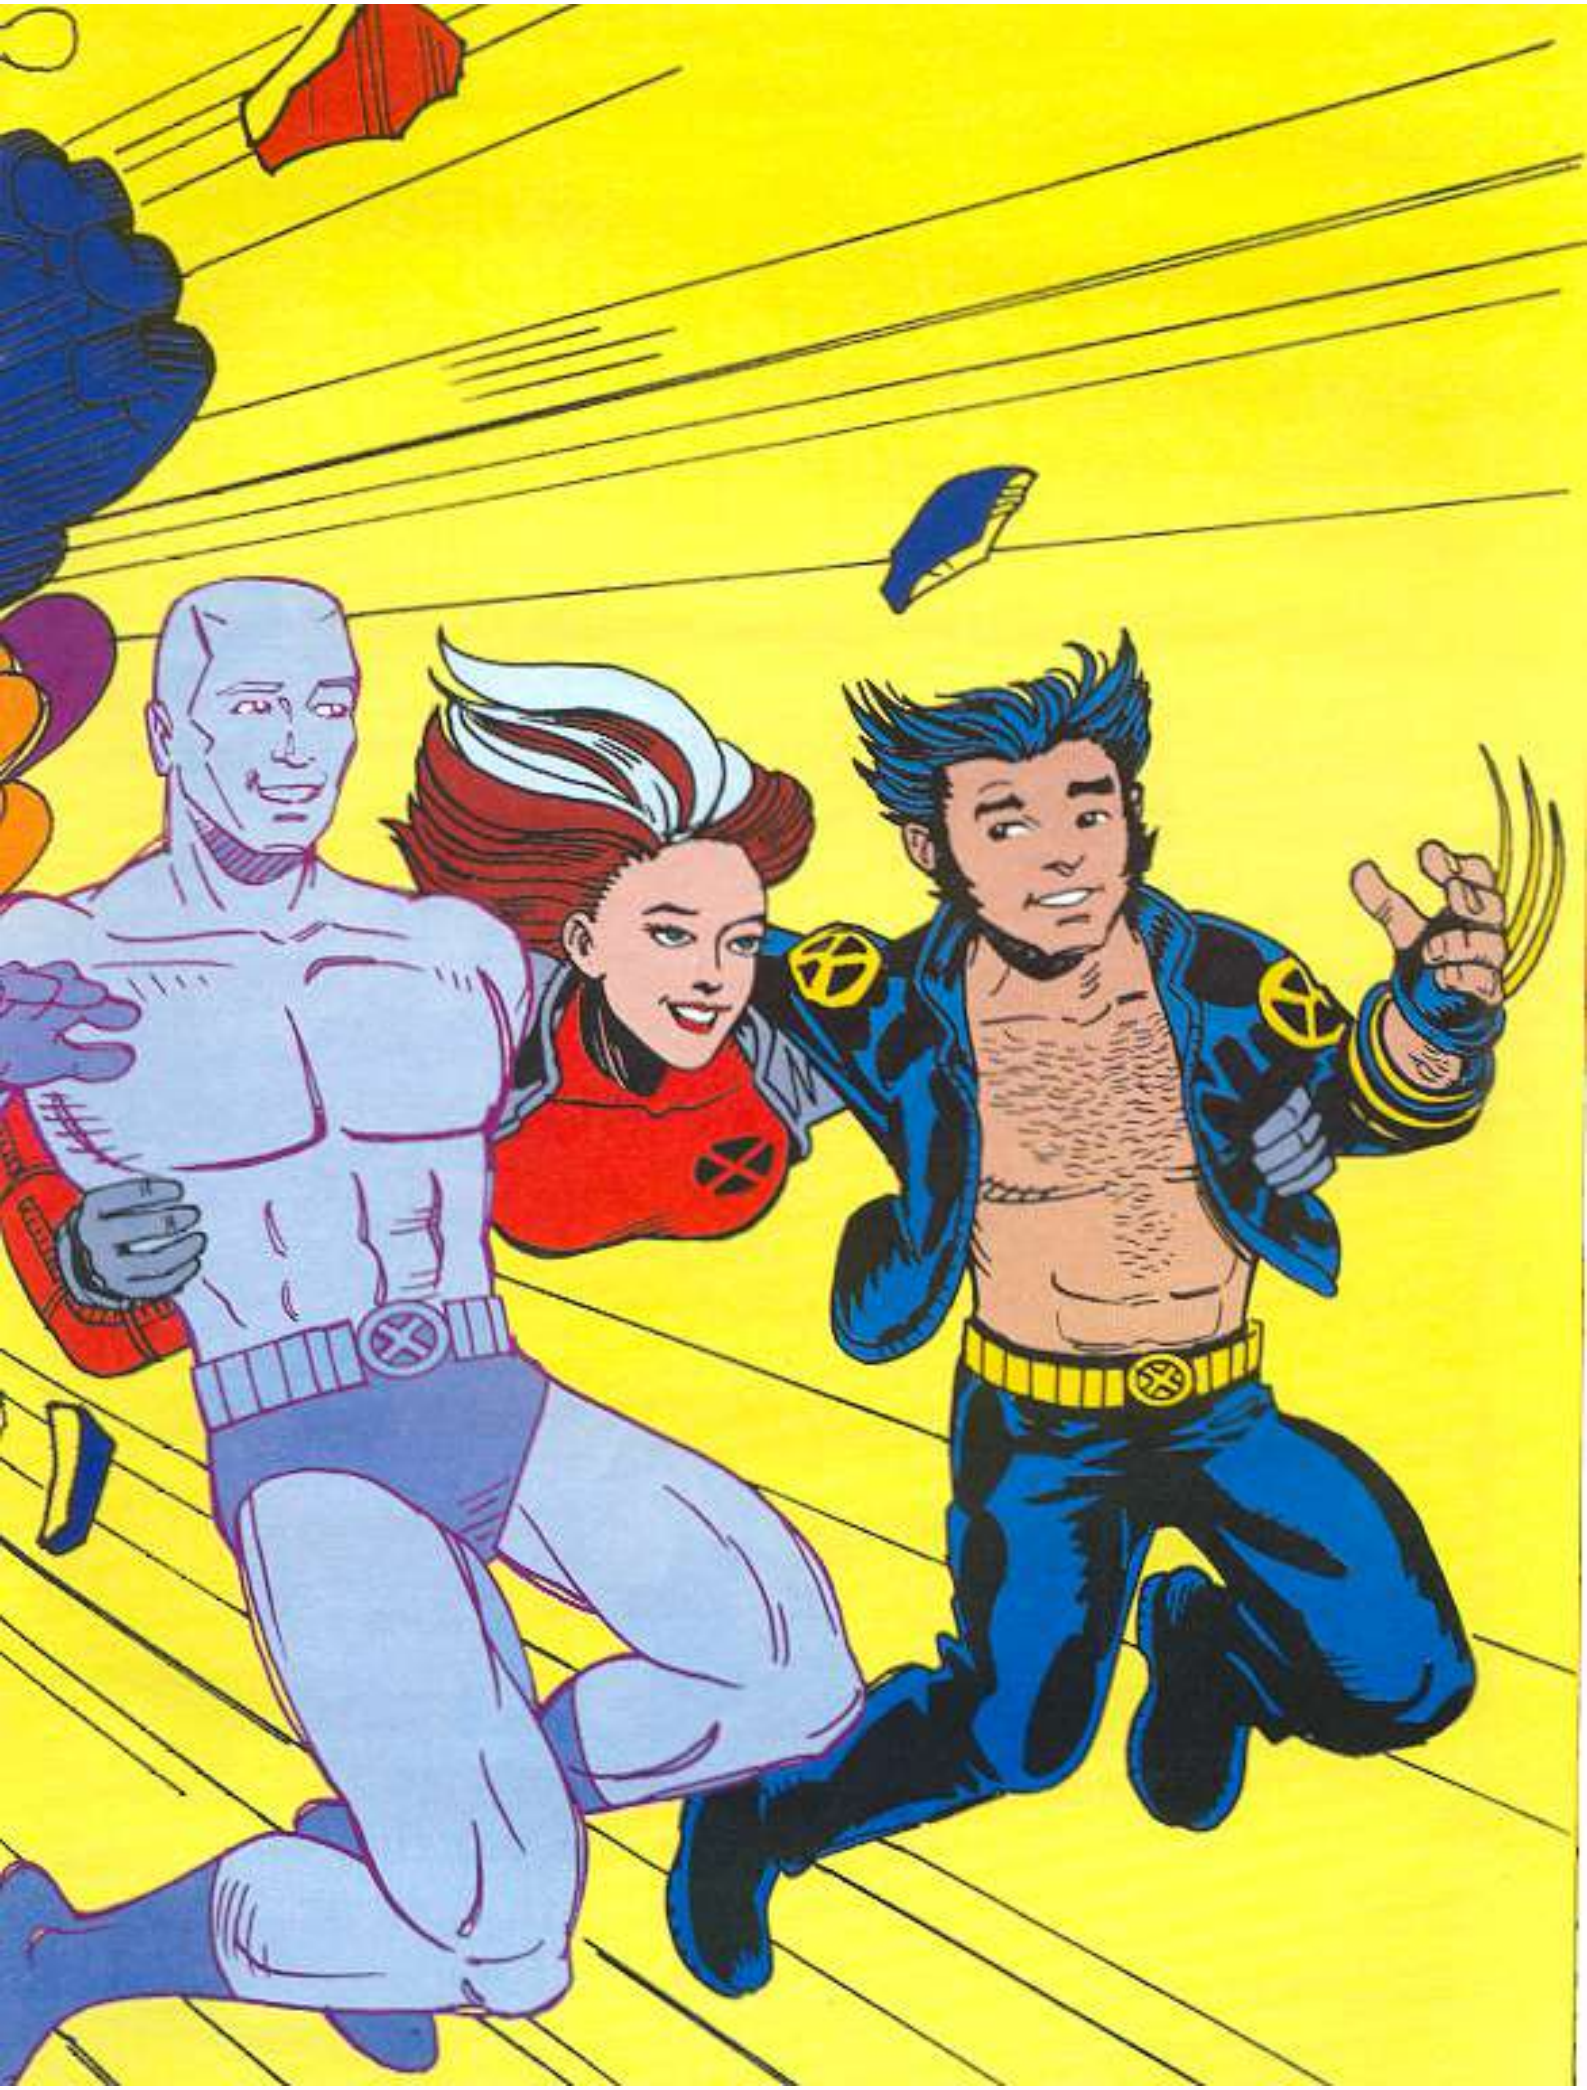
As Rogue distracts the Sentinel, Storm carries Wolverine up to the control panel of the robot. Cyclops and Iceman prepare for the attack on his circuitry.

Wolverine uses his adamantium claws to pry open the control panel. Iceman is just in time to freeze the circuits and stop the Sentinel.

KRAKA-BOO
SKRAAA

The Sentinel is frozen, but needs to be destroyed. Storm shoots her lightning bolts down onto his circuitry and Cyclops uses his optic beam to dismantle the robot. In fear of the robot exploding, Iceman helps Wolverine to get away.

Rogue flies in to save Wolverine and Iceman just as the Sentinel explodes.



The X-Men crowd around the destroyed Sentinel. They are safe for now but they all know that they will be faced with fighting powerful Sentinels again in the future.
